The Banner has not yet announced whether it will support Gov. Brown for reelection. It is an "independent" journal. Let it speak out.

THE Pittsburg Post learns that orders we gone forth from one of the largest of that place for three hundred Chinese to work in a Pittsburg rolling-mill. "Foreign pau "per labor" is not so bad after all, these men th. 'nk, when they can use it to their own advanta, qe.

WE regret that the Banne," is suffering so severely from a diarrhoea of words, combined with a constipation of ideas that it is unable to conclude whether it will support Cheatham or Johnson. The Banner is an "independent" journal and the public would like to hear from it. Perhaps it will be able to speak after it hears ex-President Johnson to-night.

FROM all portions of Pennsylvania there are coming up the most cheering reports of the progress of Liberalism and Honesty. As surely as the sun rises on the second Tuesday of October will the old Keystone the Cameron-Grant ring and stand forth for Greeley. eemed from the corruption and dishonesty that has under Radical rule rendered her State Government infamous.

GERRIT SMITH goes for Grant, but he does not seem to have much influence even | C. Wilson, has come out for Greeley. with his own family. His son, Greene club at Smithfield, Madison county. Ger. Grant. His name is S. C. Cartwright. rit H. Smith, a nephew, is president of a Greeley and Brown club at Geneva. John Ossian, Livingston county, New York, have Cochrane, also a nephew of the erratic become members of a Greeley and Brown Gerrit, is chairman of the Li eral Republi- club in that town. can State Committee.

ONE-FOURTH of the Republican vote of Illinois is claimed for Greeley and Brown by these most competent to estimate political results in that State. If even an approximation is made to that figure. Grant will be badly beaten in the Presidential contest. Trumbull and Palmer are earnest, forcible men, and their blows tell with terrible effect upon the renominationists. The Democrats are also active in Illinois, and the Union electoral ticket must be e ected in November.

Since the war, with one exception, North Carolina has voted steadily with the Radicals by majorities ranging from 9,000 to 20,000. Now, their majority, if any at all, is created by oppression of thousands of innocent persons held in terrorem as sion to Greeley and Brown. "Ku-Klux," and by a wholesale fraud with illegal negro voters; yet the Democrats have carried the Legislature, gaining a ty committee, also can spaign committees in United States Senator and electing five out each of three Assembly districts. of eight members of Congress. Who wins the victory?

COL. FORNEY says that Cameron bribed himself into the Senate in 1845, and bought his election in 1847. Being forced on Lincoln as Secretary of War in 1861, he enriched a dozen contractors, for which he was removed by the President, and censured by the House of Representatives. His election to the Senate in 1867 cost him $50,000. He is ignorant of everything except trickery and intrigue. Yet there are people who wonder why honest men bolt from the party.

THE Banner still keeps at the head of its columns the names of the candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency nominated by the Cincinnati Convention. The Banner was for Adams, but the Convention nominated Greeley, and the Banner took him. The Banner did not want Gratz Brown, but the Convention nominated him and the Banner swallowed the pill, but with a very wry face. The Banner stated that

The nomination of the ticket "was effected through agencies not altogether un- ing, Aug. 15-it was so crowded with Recommon to cominating conventions, smacking a little too much of political intriguing to be generally in accord with the unsel fish patriotism which inspired this Liberal movement and produced this convention." Still the Banner hoisted the names of the nominees, not of its own choice but as the nominees of the convention.

The Banner further stated: "Up to twelve o'clock the day before, the nomination of Adams was regarded as foregone conclusion. The suddenness with which that legitimate result was anticipated, may be attributed to the timely arrival on the scene of that incomparable controller of the destinies of conventions, the Honorable Francis P. Blair," etc. Still the Banner hoisted the ticket, notwithstanding its favorite, Mr. Adams, was sponsibility in connection with that paper's slaughtered, while in the act of clasping the wreath of victory, by "that incomparable controller of the destinies of Conventions, the Honorable Francis P. Blair." The ticket is not the Banner's ticket, but the ticket of a political convention, a ticket nominated "through agencies not altogether uncommon to nominating Conventions, smacking a little too much of political intriguing," etc., and yet the Banner supports it.

The Banner had up until a few days since the electoral ticket nominated by the Convention which assembled in the Capitol on the 20th of May. It has finally taken down that ticket, both of the candidates of the 20th of May Convention having declined, and now it has up no ticket.

the Grant party for the next two years. Notwithstanding all these probable results of a continuation of this confusion in the ranks of the Democracy, the Banner throws | The Children's Grand Jubilee up its hat and cracks its throat with shouts of joy. Instead of pouring oil on the troubled waters, it seeks to increase the fury of the disturbed elements. Instead of endeavoring to allay the hot contentions, it declares for neither Johnson nor Cheatham, but pats each on the back and sets them on to the terrible and disastrous encounter. All the hot blood in the State may be heated a thousand times hotter than it is wont to be. The bitterest personal animosities that will last through life may be engendered. The Banner sees nothing in all this but the utter disorganization and rout of the Democratic party of Tennesses, and rejoices.

Let the heart of the Banner beat high with Let the heart of the Banner beat high with its fearful joys. The Union and Ameri-CAN cannot share them, but will strive as eagerly to prevent estrangement between those who are of the same political faith in
